Cremation Enterprises is committed to serving families with honesty and respect as we would expect a member of our own family to be treated. The Golden Rule.

We are further committed to ensuring families are given clear and transparent information about their options for funeral services. The passing of a loved one is hard enough without having to worry about being taken advantage of in your time of grief.

Honest service, transparent information, and fair pricing. That is our standard.

In our pursuit to educate each family we serve and offer the most forthright care possible, we have put together the following information. The following packages have been carefully put together to simplify the cremation process and to give families quality care at an economic price.

Our General Price List (GPL) is provided to assist consumers in comparing prices and gaining a clear understanding of the costs associated with funeral services, as mandated by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

MERCHANDISE PRODUCTS

Temporary Urn	Included ($0)
Cremated Remains Containers	$199 – $249
Parting Stones	$1,495
Cremation Keepsakes / Sharing Urns	$29 – $49
Cremation Jewelry — one complimentary per family	Included ($0)
Additional Cremation Jewelry	$39 – $59
Caskets	$165 – $2,695
Alternative Container	$165

See our Merchandise Price List later in this document for a full breakdown of all urn, casket, keepsake, and jewelry options and pricing.

*If you want to arrange a direct cremation, you can use an alternative container. Alternative containers encase the deceased prior to and during the actual cremation. The container can be made of materials like fiberboard or composition materials (with or without an outside covering).

Basic Cardboard Alternative Container	$165
Outer Burial Containers	$995 – $1,095

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

TRANSPORTATION

To ensure the dignified and safe handling of your loved one's remains, Cremation Enterprises will require the aid of additional care team members to navigate homes, assisted living facilities, multilevel locations, or uneven terrain we may encounter.

Transfer of Remains to the Funeral Home	$495
Delivery of Cremated Remains	$165
USPS Priority Mail Express Shipping of Cremated Remains	$165
Transfer of Loved One from a Residence or Assisted Living Facility	$165

ADDITIONAL STAFF FOR SAFE TRANSFER OF LOVED ONE

For the safety of our team, and to serve you and your loved one in the most respectful and dignified way, additional staff members are occasionally needed to perform a smooth transition from the location of passing into our care.

Over 300 lbs	$295
Over 500 lbs	$295 + $2/lb over 500 lbs

The crematory will weigh individuals to determine this cost, if applicable.

SERVICES OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR & STAFF

Basic Services of Funeral Director, Staff, and Overhead	$1,095

Our services include: conducting the arrangements conference; planning the funeral; consulting with family and clergy; shelter of remains; preparing and filing of necessary notices; obtaining necessary authorizations and permits; coordinating with the cemetery, crematory, or other third parties. In addition, this fee includes a proportionate share of our basic overhead costs. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Embalming	$995

Except in certain cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial or when refrigeration or use of dry ice is available.

Limousine	We do not offer this service

Forwarding of Remains to Another Funeral Home	$3,495

Our charge includes: basic services of funeral director and staff; a proportionate share of overhead costs; removal of remains; preparation of remains, and local transportation.

Receiving Remains from Another Funeral Home	$2,295

Our charge includes: basic services of funeral director and staff; a proportionate share of overhead costs; care of remains; transportation of remains to funeral home and to cemetery or crematory.

Direct Cremation	$1,495 – $5,290
— with combustible casket or alternative container provided by consumer	$1,495
— with alternative container purchased from funeral home	$1,660
— with combustible casket purchased from funeral home (in addition to cost of casket selected)	$1,495

This charge includes basic services of funeral provider and staff, a proportionate share of overhead costs, transfer of remains to funeral establishment within a 50 mile radius, care of remains, local transportation to the crematory, crematory charges and temporary cremated remains container. This fee does not include embalming, visitation or funeral ceremonies, or other goods such as a cremation urn. Nebraska law does not require you to purchase a casket for cremation. If you want to arrange a cremation, you can use a cremation container. A cremation container is a combustible, closed container that encases the body and can be made of materials like fiberboard or corrugated cardboard and into which a dead human body is placed prior to insertion into a cremation chamber for cremation. The containers we provide are: Basic Cardboard Cremation Container. FTC: If you want to arrange a direct cremation, you can use an Alternative Container. Alternative containers encase the body and can be made of materials like fiberboard or composition materials (with or without an outside covering). The containers we provide are Basic Cardboard Cremation Container.

HELP WITH THIRD PARTY SERVICES

A minimal surcharge has been added to the following service items to cover our cost of labor and time to secure these items on your behalf.

Fee for Utilizing Insurance Policy (includes fee from Express Funeral Funding, additional paperwork & notarization)	$295
Crematory Fee (staff, the cremation process itself, and processing of cremated remains)	$610
Sales Tax	Based on state rate
Credit Card Processing Fee	2.9%

DEATH CERTIFICATES

Our Fee for Obtaining & Sending Death Certificates (one-time service fee, regardless of quantity ordered)	$50
State/County Fee per Certificate (set by state/county; charged per certificate ordered, in addition to our service fee above)	Varies by state/county
Mailing of Death Certificates (included in all Care Packages; if requested separately)	$45

Death Certificates are official documents issued by government authorities that record the details of a person's death. They are used for legal proof of death, settling estates, insurance claims, pension and social security, healthcare records, closing accounts and services, and for genealogy and historical records. Our $50 fee covers our staff's time and effort in obtaining and sending your certificates and is charged once, no matter how many certificates you order. The state or county issuing the certificates sets its own per-certificate fee, which is billed in addition to our fee and scales with the number of certificates requested.

DISCLAIMERS

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee, or a portion of it, is included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

The goods and services shown above are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Additional charges may apply in unforeseen situations, including but not limited to: additional staff required due to the weight, position, or condition of the human remains (e.g., decomposition, additional transfers); removal of pacemakers or other medical devices for the safety of our equipment and staff. Note: pacemakers, metals, and other medical devices will not be returned to you after cremation.

Except in certain cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial or when refrigeration or use of dry ice is available.
